Organise your office or home

An efficiently organised workplace needs clear identification of items such as file folders, suspension files, filing cabinets, CD's & DVD's and letter trays. The compact and portable P-touch 1090BK labelling machine creates labels in an instant and with the wide variety of widths and colours available, there is a tape for all your needs.

Built-in clock

Attach labels to your files to show the exact date when the information was archived using the built-in clock. You can quickly add the current date to your labels with just one simple press of a button. In addition to the date, the time can also be included if required. Ideal for archiving purposes, or to indicate when food is stored in the fridge/freezer.

Cable labelling made easy

Modern offices have so many power plugs, adapters/chargers, network cables and other wires, that it can be difficult to identify which cable belongs to which device, and connecting an adapter or cable to the wrong piece of equipment could cause permanent damage. The P-touch 1090BK has an easy to use cable labelling function that prints labels that can easily be wrapped around a cable, ensuring that costly mistakes are avoided.

Quick and easy labelling in the palm of your hand

The P-touch 1090BK has a large, easy-to-read display that ensures effortless labelling every time. The compact and portable design makes it easy to hold and can be shared with colleagues around the office, and gives the freedom to create labels on demand, wherever and whenever they are required!

Deco Mode labels bring fun to the office, and there are 12 built-in designs to choose from. Simply choose your design, type your text and print.

Add one of 7 different stylish frames to your labels to add emphasis to your message.

The built-in cable labelling function creates special labels, allowing them to be applied easily around cables throughout your office and home.

The easy-to-use Deco Mode creates stylish labels in an instant.

Clearly label all your file folders, CD's, shelves and archive files with the P-touch 1090BK, for the perfectly organised office and home

Using the built-in clock, you can add today's date to your label with a simple press of the date key
